Feb. 2. 1852.

Rev. Dr. Anderson

Dear Sir,

I send you herewith the estimates for 1853 as directed by the Mission. You will see we have added £25 to the Native Assistants as we hope to increase in that line. The Seminary is reduced £25 & we have added £10 to Tamil as we need only £50 for English Schools if we continue to receive the Grant from Government. The expense of the Tamil Schools has been less than the Allowance this year because the Cholera has prevailed so much some places as to break up the Schools for several months in succession. We hope there will not be the same cause to reduce them the coming year. The other items are the same as last year. The Expense for Repairs for 1852 will necessarily overrun the Allowance as we have been under the necessity of renewing the roof of the old house at West Batticotta which has long needed repairing very much. Oodooville House is also undergoing repairs, the roof having spread & a part of the wall given way. At some of the Stations the white ants make such havoc of the roofs that it is hard to get the mastery over them.

We overran the Allowance for Repairs a little last year in consequence of fitting up outstations for Natives & in connection with Batticotta Station as you will see by reference to the Account sent to the Treasurer.

Under the head of charges we overran £6 or £7 in consequence of Mr & Mrs Mills visit to Coimpoottoor. There is a Balance left in Stock which we have requested Mr Hill to represent to you & ask the Committee to grant us permission to pay £100 to the Jaffna Religious Tract Society to aid in removing its debt which has greatly embarrassed its operations for the past year.

We are going on with the Building of a House at Oodoopitty in the full belief that we are soon to have a family to place there & occupy that important field. The Superintendance of the work devolves upon me which in addition to the business connected with the Treasury makes me full as much of a secular Agent as a Pastor & Missionary – But somebody must do it if it is to be done. I am thankful to be able to report that notwithstanding very many cares my health is very good & that of my family much better than I dared hope it would be two years ago. We are enjoying the sea-breeze in our leafy cottage which I mentioned in my letter to you a year ago; & Mr. Howland is putting up another of the same kind near us & we hope soon to have his company –

6th. Our Secy will tell you the result of our meeting on the 4th inst. We bring new cares on Mr Howland & myself. Do send us help before we break down. We stand now like a small number of men raising the broad side of a barn. If one gives way there is danger that the weight will crush the rest. We hope to see Mr Sanders soon but we dont want to lay heavy ~~cares~~ burdens on him at first lest he be retarded in the acquisition of the language. – But how can we help it in our present position. We very much fear that it will too much for Mr Howland for he is a man who labors hard though often rather feeble – We trust that the Lord will sustain & raise up helps for us – in his own time

I remain
Yours very truly
J. C. Smith

Rev. R. Anderson D.D.

My Dear Sir,

I send you herewith by the direction of the Mission our Estimates for 1854. We have added a new head under "Native Assistants" viz. Out Stations & have increased the Amount by £25. We hope to add to that list as we have opportunity to Station Catechists in villages by themselves. Some are doing well & we feel encouraged to prosecute this kind of labor. We have also added £40. for the care of those outstations & for building houses for Catechists in the villages that the expense may not come out of the Allowance for Repairs & make it overrun as it has the past year.

For the ordinary Repairs of our Stations, we ask for only £100 & some extra Repairs, which must soon be attended to soon. It may seem strange to the Committee that it should be necessary to expend so much for the Repairs of our Houses & Churches. But it must be remembered that every thing goes to decay very fast here, & at some of our stations white ants make sad havoc. Oodooville House roof has been repaired the second time since I have been in the Mission.

We have put the care of our Health Bungalows under the head of Charges in connection with the allowance for travelling for health. Experience has taught us that the roofs of our houses must be raised from the walls & set on stones & we now ask for an extra grant for the purpose of raising the Church & House roof of Batticotta & one of the Houses at Manepy before they are ruined by the white ants. The roof on the Church at Panditeripo was put on when the Church was first repaired & needs to be renewed. If you should find it difficult to grant all we have asked the next year that might be deferred a year or two. It will however be a saving of expense we think to have it done next year. We hope the Church members will do something tho' the sum will be small. We have asked only £1000 for Education although we think more might be expended to advantage. We hope that the Commee will feel disposed to increase the grant for Native Assistants or Out stations as much at least as they diminish the grant for Education. In the Medical Department we have for several years devoted to that object the local subscriptions which are given _expressly_ for that purpose & still we have as this year also overrun our allowance a little. We think Dr. Green is doing a _good_ work in that line & if the Committee will add £15. or £20 to the usual allowance & permit us to appropriate also to that object the Grant from Government & other Donations which may be given in loco for that object we could probably do all we think advisable in that line without exceeding our allowance – The Doctor finds it necessary in order to carry out his plan satisfactorily to have a place where patients can remain while they are under treatment – This explains one item in the expense this year under the head of Hospital – The patients do not except in a few cases receive from us any thing for support while under Treatment.

The Expense on Chavakcherry Church has overrun the allowance a few Pounds & is not finished but we hope to complete it without any extra allowance – Through the kindness of the Committee the Jaff. R. T. Socy is out of debt & we now ask for £100 for the Bible Society & £150 for the J.R.T. Society that these Societys may be able to carry on their operations successfully –

In behalf of the Mission Yours truly

Rev. Rufus Anderson D.D.
Secretary A. B. C. F. M.

My dear Sir,

We send herewith a copy of our Estimates for 1857. which has the approval of the Mission. The list of Native Assistants is much the same as was forwarded to you by last mail for 1856.
With reference to Village Schools the Mission think it desirable to add a little to what we asked for when the Deputation were here in order that we may secure well qualified teachers and make proper provision for the villages under our influence. Especially that we may have Schools where there are christian families though their children may form only a part of the School. If all the teachers are christians they will require higher wages than has been paid for heathen teachers and they will be worth more. It seems desirable to have more accommodation for residence on the north shore during the dewy season and we have therefore asked for £75. for a Bungalow at Kangasontorry Government will lease land at a nominal value. The one at Passyoor will probably be sold as soon as an opportunity occurs. We have asked for £150 for changes at Oodooville. such as were spoken of when you were here and more for Bungalows and repairs on them, than we have asked for before.
The Library is a new item as it has heretofore been included in the Seminary. It is hoped that the "Star" will do more to support itself than formerly as it is being circulated more among the people — but heretofore the Translator has not been charged in that account, so that the Expense is now increased. The Mission voted to ask for £50 to print Natural Philosophy in Tamil prepared by Mr. Webb for which plates for the diagrams have already been obtained.

Mr. Wm. Nevins has been added as a translator in the Medical Department hoping that you may obtain something for that Work. Dr. Green's statement which was not ready to go by the last mail is now sent enclosed with this.

Rufus Anderson D.D.
Secretary. A.B.C.F.M.

Rev & Dear Sir,

We send herewith our Estimates for 1858 which have been sanctioned by the Mission. In the Estimates for Family Department we have made no allowance for the three new Missionaries and their wives which we expect the Committee will send us and in case they do, an addition will need to be made for their salaries

It is uncertain what arrangements will be made as to the Medical Department during Dr. Green's absence and the estimation for Assistants in the Department may be too low.

There will probably be a balance unexpended on our Appropriations for 1857. for Family Department, ~~as Messrs. Howland and Smith we~~ of some (£350) Three hundred and fifty pounds sterling as Messrs. Howland and Smith with their families have left us. It is likely also that we may save a little this year on "Village Schools" perhaps. (£30) Thirty to (£50) Fifty pounds sterling and we shall not expend the (£7) Seven pounds appropriated for building Bungalows in 1857. in Tillipally and Chavagachery.

Secy. A. B. C. F. M.
Rev. & Dear Sir.

We enclose our Estimates for 1860. which have been sanctioned by the Mission.

Under "Training School" we have included our Estimates for 1859. At a meeting held a few days since the Mission voted to add £10. ($48.) to the £75. for this year & also £10. to the Estimates for next year, making for 1859. £85. ($408.) & for 1860. £110. ($528.) It was thought that the increased expense for board would require it.

Under "Building" we ask for £45. ($216) to meet the excess of expenditure over the allowance for the alterations in the House & Church at Oduville. The expense of the work exceeded our expectations. Nearly the whole of the amount was expended last year & a little work still remains to be completed.

Under "Medical Department" we have put £50. for Medical attendance. Last year Dr. Gould (one of Dr. Green's pupils) attended upon the families of the Mission. He declined receiving a compensation. He has now left Jaffna & entered the service of the Govt. at Colombo. We are obliged therefore to look elsewhere for Medical attendance. If we should be under the necessity of calling the English physician at the fort the amount £50. ($240.) will probably be needed. The 3. Assistants dispensing medicines are located one at Batticotta — one at Oodoopitty & one at Chavagachery.

At our quarterly meeting on the 7th. we were directed by the Mission to add to the Estimates an allowance for printing a new edition of the Hymn Book in use in our Churches. The former edition is almost exhausted & we shall be under the necessity of getting out a new one, perhaps, before the close of the year. The Arcot Mission wish to take 300. copies & the Madras Mission 200. copies of a new edition at Cost.

Very Respectfully & Truly Yours

April 9. 1859.

Memoir of Rev. Henry Woodward.

Several months ago I was requested by the mission to prepare a short memoir of our late Brother Woodward. This I have neglected to do from week to week in consequence of a pressure of duties claiming more immediate attention.

We think it due to the relatives of the deceased and to the friends of Missions in his Native land to furnish them with the requisite particulars for forming some just estimate of the services of one who has long labored in this missionary field. It cannot be more gratifying to his friends in America to receive than to us who were his associates, to furnish an appropriate tribute of respect to his memory.

The following sheets contain, first, the principal parts of a narrative written by Brother Woodward at different periods for the benefit of his surviving children. Secondly, a letter written by sister Woodward to her parents in America containing particulars of the last sickness and death of her husband. And thirdly, observations expressive of the views and feelings entertained by the members of the mission, respecting the character and labors of the deceased.—

I was born Feb. 3d 1797 in Hanover, Grafton county, state of New Hampshire, United States of America. My Father Bizaleel W. was born in Connecticut July 1745. was educated at Yale College, became a preache[r] of the gospel, but finally settled as Prof. of Mathema[tics] in Dart. College, in which office he continued unti[l] his death in 1804. My mother, whose christian name [was] Mary, was the daughter of Rev. Eleazar Wheelock. D.D. the Founder and first President of Dartmouth College. She died in 1807.

I was married to Lydia Middleton of Crosswick New Jersey, who was born Aug. 3d 1795. and died N[ov] 24th 1825. Married again Oct 12th 1826 to Clarissa E. Frost, b[orn] Nov 13. 1798 at Chester, New Ham, daughter of Capt. John Eme[ry] and widow of Rev. Edmund Frost Missionary to Bomb[ay] who died Oct. 18. 1825.

All my dear brothers and sisters, father, & mother also, were pious. Glory to God. Being the youngest child in my parents, the child of their old age, I was treated with that tenderness and indulgence which their very kind hearts possessed. At the age of five ye[ars] I began to learn A. B. C. with the greatest dread of a book. In Aug. 1804 my father died ere I had b[...]

t appreciate his kindness and love for his beloved Son Henry.
From this time till March 1807 I was encircled in the arms of a tender, anxious, and pious widowed mother, who daily taught me the fear of the Lord which is the beginning of wisdom, and often said she feared that my rudeness would bring her grey hairs with sorrow to the grave. As she was near her end, I was called to her bed side, when she addressed me for the last time, saying "Harry be a good boy and God will take care of you". Soon after her death I was sent by my brother William, my guardian, to the Academy in Haverhill where I boarded in the family of Mr. S. P. Webster; during my residence, I studied Latin grammar & read some Latin; my stay there was more pleasant from the circumstance that my brother George resided in the village. In Oct 1808 I was sent to attend the Academy in Fryburg Maine, where I continued, boarding in the family of Mr James Cook the preceptor till January 1810 after my return from Fryburg, and a visit at home of two months I went to the Academy in Atkinson N. H. and boarded with John Vose Esqr. the Preceptor. In Sep. 1811. I was examined and admitted a member of the Freshmen class in Dart. College.

In January 1815. I went to Haverhill with the intention of spending the vacation with my brother George. but on my arrival there, I found him under deep exercises of mind, having but a short time previous been awakened by the Spirit of God. Not finding in him that cheerfulness and pleasantry which always m[ade] his society agreeable to me, and being a lover of plea[sure] more than a lover of the restraints of religion, I wa[s] much annoyed by his faithful and earnest exhorta[tions] to repent. The consequence was, I rose early the ne[xt] morning and set off for Hanover, much elated th[at] I had given my brother the slip. As I was contending, [not] with my brother, but with my God, it is no wonder that I was given up to an unusual degree of hardn[ess] of heart, and filled with an evil Spirit. On my way home I uttered blasphemy which I dare not record.

I mention this because it was evidently the resul[t] of the sin of the proceding evening, for I had neve[r] been in the habit of using profane language. Tho[ugh] I had been taught from my earliest years to revere the word and ordinances of God, yet I had never [felt] any love for them. I am indebted to the pious effor[ts] of my parents for being kept from the Society of the [pro-] fane and thus preserved from the use of profane [lan-] guage. Though I had fled from the place where th[e] Lord was making a display of his power and grace, a[nd] was bent on destruction, yet I could not fly from th[e] reach of God's mercy. A few after my return from Haverhill I was invited by Benj. Porter Esqr. of New[bury] Vermont to come to his house and teach a private school.

The remainder of the vacation, with which request I gladly complied. Mrs Porter I found to be a very pious woman, anxious for my spiritual welfare. She failed not to embrace every opportunity to warn me to seek first the kingdom of God; after having made repeatedly vain excuses, I was at length persuaded to accompany her to Haverhill for the purpose of attending a religious conference. But as soon as she left the sleigh I drove of in quest of some of my merry companions. I had not however gone far, before I was stopped by the Rev. Graret Powers, who compelled me to go back with him to the schoolhouse where he insisted on tying my horse; and then taking me by the hand, led me into the meeting, after singing and prayer he stood up, and fixing his eye on me addressed me in the following manner.

"Henry Woodward, do you ever think about your soul? Do you remember the council your mother gave you? Do you remember how she prayed and wept, and wepted and prayed on your account? and does not your carelessness cause her to weep still? If there is weeping in heaven she no doubt weeps over the sins of her dear son Henry. It is certain there is joy and rejoicing in heaven, why then will you not wipe away the remembrance of all your sins, by turning unto the Lord and cause her to add to all her songs a song of praise that Henry also is saved by the blood of him who is worthy to receive blessing and honor and Glory." It was at this ever-to-be-remembered meeting I first began to consider my ways; I found myself polluted with sin exposed to the wrath of God; I saw too that I needed a Saviour and Jesus Christ was su[ch] one as I needed. and by the grace of God I was enabl[ed to] flee to him and cast myself a poor helpless wretched [sin] ner on him for salvation, O what peace and what j[oy I] found in him! He appeared altogether lovely: and forev[er to be] beloved, served and enjoyed. Finding my mind to[o much] occupied with more important subjects, I could not endure the confinement of a school or the burden of te[aching] grammar &c. At my request I was released from my [school] that I might go and publish among my friends th[e] great things the Lord had done for my soul. I canno[t ex] press the joy I felt as I again entered Hanover, the p[lace] of my nativity. On every tree, every stone, indeed on ev[ery] thing I saw, there seemed to be the inscription "Holiness [to] the Lord". Soon after my arrival a glorious revival comm[enced] in Hanover, and I had the happiness of seeing many [with] whom I had formerly been joined hand in hand in si[n] turning unto the Lord. Among others was the Rev. Mr. [...] ing who was then my classmate and now my fellow [la] borer. During this season I joined the Presbyterian ch[urch] of Dart. College. In Aug. 1815 I graduated at Dart. Col[lege.] Previously to the time in which my mind wa[s] seriously inclined, I had determined on studying [...] Medicine. But as by the grace of God I had been en[a] bled in some little measure to turn my eyes from the vanity which had led me to wish that professi[on] I felt constrained to devote myself to the service of th[e] sanctuary, but as the property left me by my moth[er] been all expended, I was obliged to seek the means supporting myself. Being advised by all my friends, I lved on going abroad to seek my fortune. William gave $50. Beza a horse, James a saddle & bridle. George and sister clothing. Thus equipped I mounted my horse, knowing whither I should go, committed my way to Lord & rode off. I passed through Winsor, Chester, Man ter, Bennington, Albany, Schenectady Cherry valley Greens, wich, Hamilton to Sangersfield, Eria Co. in the state of york, a journey of 380 miles, where I found employment an Academy where I remained nine months. The circum nces which led to my return home were as follows. e various accounts I gave of a revial of religion in ngersfield to my friends at home inclined them to nk that I was becoming too wild and methodistical my religious notions, accordingly my brother Beza e to see how it was with me. Being satisfied t I was not beside myself, he left me to return. ing him drive off alone, I quickly conceived the notion t it would be very pleasant to return with him. I efore called him back, and after two days delay, acpanied him to Hanover in July 1816. At the intercession Rev. T. C. Searle who afterwards married my sister Annette, I was received on the charity foundation in the Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey, when I commenc ed my studies Nov. 10. 1815. During my first term I had many doubts as to the genuineness of my faith and repentance.

This led to more prayerful and serious consideration of my heart & life which resulted in a more extensive acquaint[ance] with my heart which still appeared to be a fountain of [in]iquity; but at the same time I had more enlivening vi[ews] of my gracious Redeemer. The following term I roomed an[d] boarded with Mr. Elias Scudder, where I was associated [with] very pious young men, & shall ever remember with gra[ti]tude the spiritual blessings I there enjoyed. I shall rem[em]ber those hours as the most precious of my life. It was at t[hat] time my thoughts were first turned to the subject of Mis[sions]. As my inquiries extended, the subjected magnified, and [in] the same proportion my desire to become a missionary increased. at that time there was nothing of a missi[onary] spirit in the seminary, there was not an individual [to] encourage me. All was dissuasion, yet when I looked [on] the millions perishing, my eye affected my heart, a[nd] I felt "Woe be to me if I do not preach the gospel in so[me] dark corner of the Earth." I was fully aware that in vie[w] of such a work the great Apostle of the Gentiles tremb[led] and exclaimed "who is sufficient for these things." Wel[l] might one weak in the faith shrink from such an [un]dertaking were he not fully confident that the grace [...]

sufficient to enable the weakest to accomplish great things. Had I viewed the conversion of the Heathen as a work to be accomplished by might or power, I should have declined the service, but knowing it to be otherwise to be a work which could be accomplished only by the spirit of him, who has declared "Lo I am with you always".

I solemnly devoted myself to the cause of Missions in my closet. I resolved if God, by the leading of his providence, should indicate that it was his will to send me into some distant part of his vineyard, I would go.

Sept. 16. 1818. I formerly offered my services to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. Immediately after which I went to Royalton (V. Y) where I was licenced to preach the Gospel. On my return about the last of October I found a letter from Dr Worcester informing me that my services were accepted, and requesting me to be present at the ordination of the Rev. Messrs Frisk, Spaulding and Winslow, in Salem, which was to take place on Nov. 4. I made speedy preparation and went to Salem, where I also was ordained. At this time, Ceylon was assigned me as the field of my future labor, in connexion with Messrs Spaulding and Winslow. From Salem (Mass.) I proceeded to Trenton (N. J.) having spent a few days in preparing for my voyage I was married on the evening of the 18th by the Rev. Mr. Howe to Miss Lydia Middleton. On Dec. 7th we left Trenton for Hanover where we arrived on the 12th.

Until May I daily labored in Newbury preaching &c. where the Lord was pleased to revive his work. I took my farewell of that people on the Sabbath. It was a heart rending scene. Being informed that the brig in which we were to sail to India was in readiness, we went to Hanover where all my brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, ...

lived near were assembled to bid us farewell. In Bo (Mass) my dear wife was very ill but by the mercy God she was so far restored as to be able to embark w wreck, from stress of weather, and put in at Vezagapatam, sailed to Trincomalie in the same brig, where we arrived proceeded by land to Jaffna where we arrived at Batti-

Nov. I preached my first Tamul sermon. The same week my son William Allen was born Nov. 8. 1820. In Feb. 1821. we removed to Manepy, where I built a mud house; as soon as the house was done I was taken sick, as was supposed with Liver complaint. Left your mother at Oodooville went to Trincomalie & Batticotta. Returned in July, with the design of going a longer voyage. I removed my family Batticotta in Aug. Sep. 12. I sailed from Point Pedro for Madras where I was kindly received by the Rev. Mr & Mrs.
Travellor. Oct 1. I embarked for Calcutta on Ship Woodford Capt.
Chapman. When arrived on the 12th Dr. Hare a celebrated physician on board the ship, found that my liver was not affected by disease. Under his care I soon got better. In Cal cutta I lived in the family of Mr David Jones (a Pelot) Mrs. formerly the wife of a Missionary Mr. Wheelock of Rangoon.
While in Calcutta I often visited the Orphan Asylum, I held meetings with the children. As it has since appeared Lord was present to bless my labors there Mrs. Schmid, wife of Burnard Schmid Missionary at Palamcotta was the number of those, who heard from me the message life Dec 15th. I embarked on the ship, Pacific, Capt. Mire of Philadelphia, for Madras, where I arrived January 6. On the 16th I reached Batticotta where I found William and his mother in good health. July 1823 we removed to take charge of the Tillapally Station and Mr Poor removed to Batticotta to take charge of the Seminary. January 1824. a revival com-

As it may be gratifying to you hereafter to read so[me] of the names of the hopeful converts, I here insert th[em]. Susan Hopkins, Jordan's wife. Elizabeth Worcester, Mamie's wi[fe]. Jeremiah Day, William Combs, who died at Batticotta. George Payson, our servant. Samuel Judson who died [at] Tillapally. Azel Backus, now a Catechist.

April 1825 your dear Mother was quite ill, from which [she] never fully recovered. She was able however to be about [the] house, most of the time, till a few days before her death. Havin[g] for some weeks been more feeble than usual, and as the re[me]dies used did not have the desired effect, she became appre[hen]sive that her dissolution was at hand; On Saturday even[ing] Nov. 19 we rode to the sea-shore in the Bandy in company with our three children. During the night she was mo[re] unwell & took medicine. On the Sabbath, she sat up [for] for a short time; On that day she was in a very happ[y] frame of mind, spoke of death with resignation & rejoi[ced] at the prospect before her. She said she felt only one t[ie] to earth which was her children, but them she cheerf[ully] committed to God. On Thursday 22d Mr Spaulding spent th[e] day with us- your mother [illegible] up a quarter of an hour

On Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock she began to sink rapidly she told me she should soon go. She asked for her dear children, when you were brought to her, she kissed each of you. Upon my asking her how she felt in view of death hich was evidently near, she replied "My hope is in my viour." A few moments after she stretched out her hand nd said good bye. This was nearly all she was able to peak. Her hands & feet from time were cold. She moved one of her limbs, save her left arm, which she threw p over her head on her pillow. She continued in a ying state till 10. o'clock of the next day when her spirit k its flight Nov. 24. 1825. On the 25th in the morning your other was interred at Tillipally. Mr. Spaulding read the 71 Select Hymn & prayed at the house in English. Mr. oor preached in Tamul in the church. Having spent a few ays with me after this mournful event, you went to Pan-iterrips to live with Dr. & Mrs. Scudder, who very kindly nsented to take you under their care, as it was impossi-e for me to take care of you, with my hands so full f business. Now as I am alone a solitary widower I canot better employ a few minutes than by informing u how I feel under this severe chastisement of my heaven Father. I feel most of the time, that it is all right. an say in faithfulness, O Lord, hast thou afflicted me. tead of adopting the language "My punishment is great than I can bear" I am inclined to say, how light is my fliction compared with my deserts. How great are the ods mercies towards me. By reading the preceding sketches my life, you must be constrained, & often compelled claim. How gracious was God to our dear father. How visible the kind hand of the Lord in each event of his life

Yes, my dear children, few, very few, have been so signally blessed as I have been - and rarely none so ungrateful. Indeed I am astonished at the long suffering and tender mercies of God. Should he remove you all from me, take away the comforts he has bestowed, yea, should he take even life and health away, still I would sing "His mercies endure forever." My chief concern is to be benefitted by this stroke.

I fully believe that God designed it for my good. Though clouds & darkness are round about him, I am comforted with the assurance that justice & judgment are the habitation of his throne, & that he has wise & merciful designs in this mysterious dispensation. I do hope and pray that I may not be permitted to harden my heart & thus lose the blessing he designs to confer - If you wish to know more fully the language of my heart read Flavel on keeping the heart in seasons of adversity. I believe I love every word that good man wrote on the subject.

Feb. 3d 1826. The 29th anniversary of my birth. I wish my dear children that it were in your power to tell what I have felt & enjoyed for several weeks past; but it is impossible. I can only say that I have been reaping the precious fruit of my late affliction. O that I could find language to record my views of the goodness and mercy of God towards me. How rich yea how abundant have been the consolations he has afforded me. I have passed through the rivers, but they have not overflowed me

[I] have walked through the fire, and have not been burned, [th]rough the flames, but they have not kindled against me [th]ough my heavenly Father has removed far from me my [de]arest earthly Friend; yet he has fed my soul with good [th]ings. Yea my soul has delighted itself in fatness. My song has [co]ntinually beat, "how excellent is thy loving kindness." Such [vie]ws of heaven are almost more than my poor frame can [en]dure. Never have I so longed to fly away and be at rest. No, [th]ey rest not day nor night! but with the golden harp [w]hich "is strung & tuned for endless years. and formed by [p]ower divine, would sound in the Father's ear. No other [n]ame but thine." blessed Jesus. It is this glorious hope, revives [m]y courage by the way, that after a few more years, or days [pe]rhaps, I shall be permitted, with your dear mother to cast [m]y crown at the feet of Jesus. Often do I go & sit down [by] her grave & sing "Sweet to rejoice in lovely hope" &c. &c. [I] have often desired to depart & be with Jesus, yet I would [no]t go till I have suffered all the pain and affliction [&] trials that the Lord has in store for me, and have fin[is]hed the work he has given me to do. Then & not till [the]n, would I enter into the joy of my Lord. My heaven[ly] Father knows better than I do what preparation is necessary to fit me for the full enjoyment of himself. Often may I have to retrieve my steps in the wilderness & full 40 years be kept from the land of Canaan. But I would not mourn, for it is still, whatever way I am led, a land of promise. rived at Tellicharry, and on the 16th at Cannanore, whe we were kindly entertained by major T. W. Brett. On 18th we embarked in a large open boat of 15 or 20 for Mongalore. On the morning of the 20th we came to chor under the lee of a mountain in a bay about miles distant from Cannanore. Being detained head winds we did not sail from this place t early in the morning of the 21st we were however obliged to put back into the bay on account of a gale which soon commenced. During the night succeeding, ~~it~~ blew very hard, the sea ran "mountai high" and our little Bark, with a small cable was

-lowing through the billows which were breaking over our -ads and fast filling our boat - we were not long toss- -d about before our cable parted, our rudder was carri- -d away, & we were left to the mercy of the waves. All -nds on board, despairing of deliverance, commenced - most doleful yell, each one calling on his most -avorite God for deliverance - Expecting to be lost, we -lifted up our hearts to God in prayer. I thought of you my -ear children & wrestled with the angel of the covenant, -d then gave you up to God - at length the storm abated - we were mercifully brought to land about noon. Proceed- -g up to Poothegunnocotta, by the river, which runs along the -hore, about 30 miles, we procured bearers & went on to Man- -galore by land, where we arrived on the 24th. On the 29th -e left for Goa, by land. This part of our journey was -t accomplished without suffering from a variety - causes. Bad roads, rain, & inhospitable treatment -m a Portuguese gentleman, the only European resident - a village where we put up, who refused us food &c, - that we were obliged to travel 15 miles on the Sabbath, - the rain for food. On the 5th Sept. we arrived at -ngam (New Goa) & took our lodgings with Doze Loungs a -aval officer, with whom we could converse only in Lat- -. On the succeeding day we visited old Goa to see -he Cathedrals, convents, &c which were once celebrated. -The house of Inquestion is falling to decay. It is alrea- - the habitation of moles & bats, & foxes walk on the walls thereof. The curse of the Almighty rests [on] this Aceldama. The standing walls of the Inquis[ition] reminds the passing stranger, that he lives in a [more] favored era, & bids him praise God that he can s[it] under his vine & fig tree having none to molest or [make] him afraid. Standing on this Mars Hill, though [unable] to raise his voice against the superstitions of th[is] people, because he has not the gift of tongues, the [Chris]tian traveller can descry with the eye of faith, the [fulfil]ment of the declaration of Jehovah, that the dark [places] of the earth ~~are~~ full of the habitations of cruelty, [shall] be filled with the glory of God. In the Cathedral, an[other] building, I saw a great many pictures, statues, repr[esent]ing many persons and facts mentioned in scripture. [In] another I saw a tomb in which are the remains [of] [Fran]cis Zavier. In the nunnery I saw only three nuns, [but] there are said to be forty or fifty young persons, who [are] not permitted to show themselves.

On Monday the 18th I embarked for Bombay, on a P[ata]mah. The passage though long (15 days) was pleasant. At [day]light on the morning of the 24th I went on shore walked t[o] Rev. Mr Graves house, where Mrs C. E. Frost boarded.

On the morning of Oct. 12th we were married by Rev. Mr. Clow the Scottish Chaplain. On the 19th we emb[ark]ed on a Patamah for Cochin. On the 7th of Nov. we landed [at] Cochin & were kindly entertained at the house of Rev. Sam[uel] Ridsdale Missionary. On the evening of the 12th we went on d the ship Rob Roy Capt. Taylor bound to Colombo. On the a heavy surf on the bar prevented our going to sea. On the ning of the 12th we set sail from the back waters & came n to the Bar. where we were drifted on the land & e near being lost. In our distress we cried unto the d and he delivered us from all our fears. We were taken m the wreck by an Eng. Captain, (Steel) who risked his e to deliver us from our perilous situation. The surf s so high that it was with great difficulty he could rsuade natives enough to manage the boat to accompa him. Thousand stood on the shore & witnessed our danrous situation, some hours before it was possible for a at to come to our relief. Most of our baggage was

t. Still the Lord dealt with us according to our deserts.

From Cochin we went to visit the Mission at tyam & spent ten days with the missionaries among rian Christians. From thence we passed through llepy, Quiloo, Travandrum, & Nagercoil, to Palamcotta, re we stopped a few days. From thence we went to Mara, Trichnapally & Tanjore. From thence we passed to Nagerpattam — from which place we embarked Jaffna on the 19th of January 1827 and arrived on the 21st

The Neilagerry hills are from 6500 to 8000 feet [high]er than the plains below. In Sept. following your mother [Ma]ry & Edmund J. joined me on the hills, & we remained [the]re till March 1829. Batticotta, January 29th 183

My beloved parents,

All the brethren and sisters appear quite well & happy. And I believe all in our li circle are well except Mr. Woodward, whose health been failing ever since our removal to Batticotta He he been so ill for a month or two past, that physicians recommend a years residence on the gherry hills; and the brethren have directed him write and make inquiries for a house at Oota mund. When he was on the hills five years ago may recollect he resided at Koterghery. O is most 15 miles west of K. & the climate is much colder, the hills being higher, therefore Rev. Scudd recommends his going there. Should he be able a house, he will wish to leave by the middle of month. He wishes me to accompany him and t Edmund Frost and little Mary Elizabeth, and lea dear C. Annette and little John B. at Batticotta hardly feel reconciled to so long a separation fr these little ones, who so much need a mother's ca But it will be impossible to take all our c week before we expected to leave, which delayed us a tle. Four or five days I was dangerously ill, but the nd at length relieved my pain, and restored me lowly to health, and as soon as I was able to walk bout we left home. We had much fatigue in getting cross the Channel; but the little trip benefitted my alth very perceptibly. And by the time we reached anjore, Mr Woodward felt himself much better than hen we left Jaffna. The rest of the journey however m sorry to say, proved quite fatiguing to him; and hen we reached the Hills, he was not so well as when e left home; nor do I perceive that he now improves t all, neither does he seem to get worse. It is quite ld here. We find winter clothes and a fire very comfort ble, though this is not the coldest season. Ootacamund a fine place, and is getting to be very populous.

Coimbatoor August 7th

Little did I think my beloved parents, when I wrote e foregoing pages, that this letter would remain by , till I had such melancholy intelligence to com-unicate. Are you prepared to hear that your daugh r is again a lonely widow? Yes, it is even so, My dear usband has entered into his eternal rest!

At 11 O'clock last Sabbath night the 3d inst. his happy pirit took its flight, and left me the sufferer here t present far away from my dear brethren & sisters Jaffna. And now my dear parents, shall I give full vent to my aching heart, or go back and give a de[tail] of the last three and a half months of my dear dep[art] ed husbands life? To dwell on my lonely situation, sure will afford you no satisfaction, neither do I t[hink] it will benefit my own soul; for it is only in go[ing] directly to my compassionate Saviour, and pouring my complaints into his bosom that I find comfor[t].

I will therefore go back to April 17th at which time dear departed had a severe billious attack, which con[fined] him to the house a long time. This was succeeded by a[nother] er attack about a month after which reduced him ve[ry] much, and as the rains were commencing at Oota[ca] mund, his physician advised him to remove to Kote[ge] ry, where the rain at that season were less, and the climate milder. We therefore in June removed to [it] but unfortunately the house, which we engaged pro[ved] a very damp place, and my dear Mr. W. took a ve[ry bad] cold which appeared very threatening. As soon a[s we] could procure another house we removed. But he [con] tinued very feeble, his cough was troublesome and [he] was ~~completely~~ extremely emaciated, but as he had no pain [in] his side or chest, we hoped his lungs were not much [af] fected. He, however often spoke of the probable event of his illness, but felt no anxiety about it. He said the [Lord] will do all things well, and he felt reconciled to his ri[ghte] ous will. He found it sweet to be passive in his han[ds].
But though he felt thus he often mourned the hidings of idings of his Saviours face, and many times during r residence at Kotagherry he requested me to read e 144 Hymn 1st Book, "Why should the children of a king" &c r residence at K. was short and gloomy. The season as damp and no prospects of more pleasant weather r many months. The physicians recommended a moval to the plains till the weather should become ttled on the Hills. And my dear husband, himself hought that he should feel better in a warmer climate. So we came down to this place on the 10th of last month. The dear sufferer bore the journey much better than either of us expected, and he quite njoyed the warm weather so that I had strong opes, for a time, that he would really recover again. hough I find it was not the expectation of our kind friends, Mr. & Mrs. Addis, at whose I am. They have emarked since his death, that they had not the least xpectation of even a partial recovery, from the time e came into their family. But so ardent was my esire to reach Jaffna before he should be taken from e, that I was blinded to the true state of his disase. Surely, I did not think his end was so near, nor do I think he thought so himself, though he had no expectation of recovery.

He continued to go out daily in a palankeen, till about a week before his death, and usually seemed refreshed by the exercise till the commencement of a bowel complaint.

Although he felt, during all his painful di[sease] perfectly reconciled to the will of his Heavenly Fath[er] yet he would often say "O, I long for a brighter gl[impse] of my Saviour's face"! Saturday, the day before his d[eath] he conversed a long time with me. It was a seas[on] of deep felt interest to me and one I look back u[pon] with much satisfaction, though his mind was n[ot] altogether unclouded. He requested me to read t[he] last chapter in the pilgrim's progress, respecting Christian and Hopewell. I also read to him select pa[ssages] from the Revelations, describing Heaven. He expre[ssed] a great desire for more light and joy, but said " "though this be not granted me, I do feel ~~that~~ I a[m] resting on a sure foundation. On the Rock Christ I am not afraid to trust my all with him".

He said, "It is right ~~that~~ my Saviour shoul[d] withhold his special visits now, for I have been stupid for a long time, But, Oh, he will not cas[t me] off, all unworthy as I am! Other refuge have I n[one]"

He said he had messages to his dear breth[ren] and sisters in Jaffna & to beloved friends ... but ~~that~~ he was too much fatigued to mention th[em] then. Saturday night I was very ill, not able to be with him, nor was I able to sit up much on the Sabbath. When I came to him, Sabbath morning, he id he had a very comfortable night, and was then quite e from pain. Towards noon his diarrhoea was troublesome d he complained of much pain, which was very severe two or three hours. This was succeeded by laborious resiration, which however, he thought would be relieved keeping himself a little warmer than usual. How trange, that I did not then see that the hand of death was upon him: But so it was-

I read select portions from the Psalms to him, and some of his favorite hymns, which appeared to afford him much pleasure and comfort, though he was not able to say much, and complained in the course of the fternoon of not being able to think connectedly-

About 10 O'clock in the evening Mr & Mrs. Addis came as usual- and as he was about to engage in prayer dear husband smiled and said "Bro. Addis- two thingsank God that I am so free from pain this evening, and ay that he will grant me more light".

After prayer, feeling quite poorly I laid down on couch and watched him till 11 O'clk, at which ime he began to perspire and his breathing was aparently easier. I said to him, you are easier now dear, do you feel inclined to go to sleep? to which he nodded assent. I changed his pillow and repeatedly wiped the perspiration from his face. But little did I then think that I was wiping the cold sweat of death from his pale face! for he seemed so quiet and fortable, that I dropped to sleep. But not many utes elapsed before the servant who was fann him spoke to me; And oh, what was my surprise when I saw my beloved husband just breathing his soul! without a struggle or a sigh— He seemed one quietly going to sleep. I spoke to him but he a swered not: Mr Addis was in the room in a mom

I reflected on myself that I had not taken wa from his symptoms of his approaching dissolution. for two weeks previous to his death I had little or no tation of his ever being any better, yet I thought might continue many weeks longer, but our H ly Father saw fit to take the dear sufferer to self ere he got impatient—

"Nor sorrow, nor sickness, nor pain"

"Nor sin nor temptation, nor fear,"

"Shall ever molest him again". No, he ha found his long sought rest. And why do I mourn f the dear departed: I feel assured that my loss is his eternal gain. That he is now with his Saviour wh he loved and served on earth. He will mourn the hiding his face no more. Oh, no. He will now wonder, e and praise, through all eternity! Glorious emloyment! Not a moment would I indulge a wish recall him to this world of sin and sorrow. t, Oh, my dear parents, I need your prayers, for I n solitary and afflicted. I have lost a kind, affec-onate, and beloved husband. A Counsellor, a friend ho loved to share my joys and sorrows. nearly eight years we walked, hand in hand to-ther, bearing each other's burdens. But it is the ord my covenant God who has removed my bosom iend from my sight. His will be done. know you will pray for me that this affliction ay be sanctified to me. If I am but purified the furnace, then can I say sweet affliction.

The Lord bless you, my dear parents, and prepare all to meet in heaven.

Your affectionate, and deeply afflicted daughter

Clarissa E. F. Woodward.

It now remains that we make a few remarks ex-ressive of the views and feelings we entertain on a re-iew of the labours of our deceased brother while sociated with us in the work of the Mission.
Our first remark is an expression of thanksgiv-g to God for continuing him so many years in the issionary field; more particularly for raising after we had much reason to regard him as one wh almost terminated his earthly course. On his arriv in Jaffna Feb. 1820, he was evidently a person of feeb constitution, which did not hold out a promise of long life or of much hard service in a foreign but in both of these particulars we have been most pily disappointed. In reference to his repeated an unexpected restoration to health, he often gratefully marked, that he regarded himself as one who h twice taken a fresh lease of life; that on leaving t

Consequently he acquired that kind of knowledg of the language, which turns to good, & immediate count. Neither his circumstances nor habits of mind were favorable for acquiring an extensive, & critical knowledge of language, particularly, of the poetic dialect; he was able however to read, write & speak the former with facility, & to good acceptance - Several of the more useful tracts in our general series, as well as in the series for children were his productions, & will long continue to be pleasing mementos of his labors in the language for the salvation of the people.

His labors were greatly diversified both in regard to the places of residence, or people among whom he exercised his ministry. His numerous removals, which were entirely by his brethren in view of what the best interests of the Mission obviously required at the time, were in full accordance with the natural temperament of his mind, & his readiness to enter upon a new course of labor, which was usually an improvement upon the course previously pursued. His removals from place to place were not confined to the limits of our Mission field in Jaffna. His voyage to Calcutta in the year 1821 was not merely the means of his recovery from what we apprehended to be fatal disease, but was connected with events of higher importance. His special labors in the Female Orphan Asylum in that city were evidently blessed of God to the conversion of several individuals of European descent, some of whom are known to be placed in important situations in life. The complete success of these last efforts in behalf of the Mission, greatly cheered his spirits and occasioned a joy which his feeble frame could scarcely endure. For ten years we had been watching a favorable opportunity for extending our Missions to the adjacent Continent, but at no period had the door been opened for us. Soon after the reinforcement in 1833 it was unanimously resolved that an attempt should be made to establish a Mission in the district of Madura, if permission could be obtained from the Madras Government. The question as to the most eligible method of making application for this privilege was one of some delicacy & difficulty- we had it in contemplation to send a member of the Mission to Madras for the purpose. This would have been a small sacrifice in comparison with the importance of the object we had in view, but, there were prudential considerations restraining us from this course. Such was the state of this interesting question when Bro. Woodward left us, the difficulties of which he well understood. Soon after his departure it was announced in the Newspaper that the Governor General of India & the Governor of Madras had gone to the Neilgherries where they would probably remain for some weeks. Sir Frederick made many kind but pointed inquiries res ing our school establishment. He expressed his decided ap bation of the principles on which our mission Seminary conducted, observing, that they were in accordance with views he entertained on the subject of Literary Establish for the natives. At the close of this interview he proposed eral questions for brother Woodwards consideration, & invit him to dine with him on the ensuing week. In the m

His mind was soon relieved on this subject for we had fully anticipated his wishes, feeling the importance of taking advantage of this favorable crisis. On the day ap pointed for his dining with Sir F. Adam, Br. W. was un ble to leave his Couch. The only necessary preparatory ste however had been taken. He ascertained by the kind assis of friends, that the way was now fully open for a formal ap plication to Government agreeably to the conditional inst tions of the Mission. As a matter of course the applica tion was forwarded to the Chief Secretary to Government at Madras. In due time brother W. had the happiness of [trans]mitting an answer in all respects in accordance with [his] wishes. The receipt of this communication forms a [ne]w era in the History of our Mission.

[F]rom our knowledge of bro. Woodward's temperament of mind [&] body we have no doubt but this negociation, which ap[pe]ars to have been executed with much prudence & discre[ti]on, was most consuming to his little remaining strength [an]d emaciated body, & he regarded it throughout as his last [w]ork.

In view of the foregoing remarks it must be obvious [th]at bro. Woodward's last sickness and death will ever be [c]losely associated in our minds with the commence[m]ent of the Madura Mission.

The department of labor in which our brother most excelled was that of establishing and managing schools, & of nurturing the members of the Church, partic[u]larly in directing Native Helpers, in Mission labors. On his taking charge of the station at Tillipally six hundred [c]hildren were committed to his care. In the course of [a] few years this number was more than doubled. In [1]824 the members of the three boarding schools at Oodooville. Manepy, and Panditeripo were removed to [the] boarding school at Tillipally & were all put under [ou]r brother Woodward's care. This school continued in a [flo]urishing state, till his departure for the Neil[gherr]ies in 1828.

While at Tillipally he employed a considerable portion of the Church members at the station many of whom were members of the school, in a regular course of visiting the houses of the natives, for the purpose of reading to them the Scriptures & other books. A sim-course was pursued by him at other stations where exercised his ministry, varied however as circumstances req-

The native churches at Tillipally, Manepy, & a bra of the Church at Batticotta, were successively under pastoral care. His systematic & persevering labors fo their spiritual welfare, & for the welfare of the child of church members, were evidently blessed of God to t prosperity of the church. His exertions in this ser in connection with his kindness & generosity to t poor of his flock have made a deep and salutary pression upon all concerned. He will long be held affectionate remembrance by multitudes throug these parishes. He has left a name "more precious ointment" whereby though dead he yet speaketh.

The marked characteristic of his preaching w simplicity of matter & manner. He manifested m skill & ingenuity in adapting his discourses to capacities of children, of whom his congregatio were often chiefly composed. Immediately on h rising in a public assembly, every child wou be awake to hear a parable or similitude, whi he "must be prepared to report when called u in the course of the address, and to show its application and bearing upon themselves and others. This method was so characteristic of the man in all his intercourse with the natives, that Mr. Woodward's parables became proverbial, many of which are now carefully retained, both in writing, & in the memories of the people. While by this means he succeeded in arresting the attention & imparting instruction to the infant & youthful mind, he was by no means deficient in impressive application & solemn appeal to the hearts & consciences of his hearers. A goodly number of souls, we doubt not, will appear at the coming of the Son of God, as the seals of his ministry & the crown of his rejoicing.

In the various social relations of life as Husband Father, associate & Friend, he was all that might naturally be expected of him from the traits of character prominently exhibited in his own narrative. He was warm hearted, obliging, & ever ready to deny himself to serve his friends. These traits of character greatly endeared him to all who were intimately acquainted with him.

The service ~~by which he made the deepest~~ impression of pleasing obligation, in the hearts of all the fathers and mothers in our Mission circle, was the voluntary service which he rendered as the children's Pastor. His affectionate solicitude for the temporal and spiritual welfare of the children of the Mi manifested itself at an early period after his ar at Jaffna, and continued to increase in proportio

In connexion with this meeting he gave direction, to various Christian studies of the children during the mo & so far examined them in their numerous lessons, th a due preparation for the meeting became a pleasin and powerful motive to diligence on the part of th children. The teacher's approbation was the highes reward they desired. The mere recitation of the les at this monthly meeting, though important, was bu secondary object. A large portion of the time was in a direct & solemn address, or in unreserved inte course, in the way of question and answer, on the great subject of personal religion. The method these occasions was very various, but uniformly teaching, & must have been the result of previous preparation. It was not easy to say who looked forward with the deeper interest to the return of this meeting, the Teacher or the Children. The delight he felt in these labors of love was evidently one of his best qua lications for a successful performance of them and we ery much mistake if some of the deepest, and most allowed associations which will long bind the hearts f the children to this, their native land, are not inseparably connected with the pastoral labors of our deceas-d brother. On this subject the feelings of parents & chilren are fully in unison with each other.

In view both of the promise & providence of God, e believe that he is wont to reward in kind, the pecial services of his people. If so the deceased has left a rich legacy for his bereaved partner & seven fatherless children - Many who have ability will ount it their duty & privilege, as opportunity may offer, to minister to their temporal & spiritual necessities. Wherever his children may be cast in the providence of God, there will be at least an individual who will have compassion upon their immor tal souls, who will occasionally call them aside one by one, and in the retired chamber, affectionately point them to the Lamb of God, and solemnly urge his claims upon their hearts, accompanied with fervent prayer. Whenever these kind offices are performed, they must be regarded as answer to the earnest petitions of the deceased which he of expressed in the language of a favorite Hymn, with repetition of which we shall close this short tri[bute] of respect to one who was deservedly loved & esteem[ed] by all who knew him.

The parent's prayer in prospect of being separated from his ch[ildren]

"Dear Saviour, if these lambs should stray," "From thy secure enclosure's bound". &c
